Proper Pricing

What to look for, what to avoid, and what to look forward to!

First off, let's be honest, people are smart! We can usually recognize if something is not authentic and just doesn't add up. Over the years, I have witnessed every gimmick on this beach. Sadly, there are some people who feel that they can grab a camera, pose as photographers and hustle a hundred dollars or two out of our beloved tourists. Slogans such as, "No session fee", "You only pay for your photos", "No deposit necessary", as well as other verbal catch phrases that leave you feeling insulted.

The fact is, if you pay too little there is a reason and if you pay too much it's greed! Paying too little doesn't necessarily mean you are getting a good deal. In most cases, it means that the skill level of the person shooting prevents them from asking for more.

You deserve better! You've worked hard, you've held your family together, and that success demands a proper portrait experience with a fair price. My commitment to you is that you will receive the very best experience, price and most of all exceptional photography.

The truth is, I photograph more families on this beach than any other photographer. This allows me to give reasonable pricing for all families, while never going after any particular family's pocket. By staying booked, we all benefit!

I'll say it again, people are smart and I will respect that fact from the time we first speak until we say our farewells. Booking with me guarantees that the quality, pricing and experience will always be fair and balanced.

Afterall, exceptional families deserve exceptional presentation. So look no further, secure your spot today!

Thank you and I look forward to seeing you on the beach!
Respectfully,
